

Kutaisi University, Georgia

Kutaisi University is located in the centre of Kutaisi ,the historical and beautiful city in Georgia . The area was known long ago for international travellers , including ancient Greeks . According to the ancient Greek legend , the Argonauts travelled to Colchis whose capital was Kutaisi (Kutaia) to acquire the Golden Fleece . Kutaisi is famous for Gelati Monastery , which is a World Heritage site . It is one of the most beautiful and important historical sites in Georgia .

Kutaisi University is the first higher educational institution in the west part of Georgia , which was founded in 1991. Kutaisi University offers students a high quality of education with international standards , a variety of exchange programs -oriented teaching courses .

Kutaisi University implements all three-step programs: Bachelor ,Master and Doctoral programs.

Since the day of Kutaisi University's establishment ,it has collaborated with 26 universities in 15 countries based on the Memorandum of Understanding . This fact even allows us to accept foreign students and lecturers to have double degree programs . Also, to have exchange program for students , academic and for administrative staff. In accordance with this , students are given the opportunity to participate exchange program . They travel intensively abroad and at the same time , foreigners are studying at Kutaisi State University.

Besides, Kutaisi University focuses on education with a high quality , it also supports students for employment and interns through the Student and Alumni Service Center . Kutaisi University is an individual associate member of EUA (European University Association).It is the fifth private university in Georgia which has joined the EUA , which is a unique opportunity to develop and elaborate European education policy .

Kutaisi is a safe and affordable city. Many international students enjoy studying and living in Kutaisi. The accommodation and food are affordable and relatively cheap. Kutaisi University is in the city's center and easy to access by public transport. The city and its citizens are friendly and helpful.