

Study at the University of NIS

The University of NIS was founded in 1965 and nowadays, it includes 14 different faculties! Some of them are the Faculty of Medicine, the Faculty of Engineering and Architecture, the Faculty of Law, the Faculty of Technology and the Faculty of Economics. They all offer various interesting Bachelor, Master and PhD programs. The university works with the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) and issues diplomas that are internationally recognized!

One very important aspect of the university is its focus on research – some of the scientific projects have been funded by the Serbian Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development! Furthermore, the University of NIS provides great facilities, including a student infirmary, a dormitory, canteens and a modern library named “Nikola Tesla”.

The University of Niš is located close to the city centre of NIS – the third biggest city in Serbia. The main building is very beautiful – it is pronounced to be a cultural treasure of major significance. It used to be the administrative seat of Morava County and it was built more than 130 years ago.

Study Medicine at University of NIS

The Faculty of Medicine at the University of NIS is a great place to study Medicine in English. It offers a six-year Master's degree in General Medicine (360 ECTS). Students can apply for a PhD program after completing their education. The tuition fees are 5500 EUR per academic year, which is very affordable in comparison to other European countries that offer the same study program. The education is practice-oriented. Some subjects in first year include Anatomy, Histology and Embryology, Molecular and Human Genetics, Medicine and Society, Introduction to Clinical Practice.

Admission and entrance exam for Medicine in English in NIS

Applicants must prepare documents according to the university's requirements. Furthermore, sitting an entrance exam in Biology and Chemistry is a must. The university offers a preparatory course that covers both exam subjects. Keep in mind that entry is very competitive, as the university accepts a limited number of students per academic year. The team of Inter HECS provides full support with all admission steps, so you do not have to worry about missing deadlines, translating the needed application documents and getting high marks in the entrance exam!

Student life, expenses and accommodation in NIS

Most foreign students at the University of NIS rent a private or shared apartment near the university campus. The price is around 200 EUR per month, but it varies depending on the size and the furniture of the apartment. We fully assist our students with finding suitable accommodation in NIS!

Living expenses are quite affordable! A meal in a restaurant costs around 5 EUR, whereas a ticket for public transportation is around 0.50 EUR! Most people travel by bus or taxi – whatever you choose, it will be fast and inexpensive! The local currency is Serbian Dinar (RSB).

Some airlines that offer flights to Niš Constantine the Great Airport are WizzAir, RyanAir, Air Serbia and Swiss. The city is also located near three other big airports – in Belgrade (Serbia), Sofia (Bulgaria) and Skopje (North Macedonia).

There are many things to do in Niš and students enjoy their stay! The city hosts many interesting festivals. Students like going to the cinema and enjoy outdoor sports activities such as tennis and biking. Locals love to walk by the beautiful Nisava river. Famous sightseeing places include the Red Cross Nazi Concentration Camp, Nis Fortress, Skull Tower, Three Fists memorial and Tinkers Alley.

BOOK A FREE CONSULTATION

Call for Admission in India- Arch Educational Services, Guwahati, India-919435087972/ +919864072182