

The University of Georgia

The University of Georgia was first named under "Georgian University of Social Sciences". It is one of the largest universities in Tbilisi, Georgia.

Their Medical Programmes are recognized worldwide. under supervision of qualified mentors, Practical training is provided by the best multipurpose clinics of the Health system. The University is also a member of the Bologna Process as well as is recognized in Europe and the USA.

The University of Georgia is a substantial college, which owns the 4th position on the countrywide level. Currently more than 6000 local and international students are pursuing the University of Georgia. It gives distinctive quality training and ambitions to increase extraordinary skills for the future. With superior educational services, the college enriches their student's skills. The college gives a group of outstanding faculties, who guide the scholars during the academic tenure.

University is aiming at supporting the Higher Education Reform and developing the cooperation between the partner countries of the European Union.

The students across the globe seeking to pursue their career in the university of Georgia must go through the below mentioned points:

- Simulation Hospital is one of the exceptional multi-profile simulation laboratories in Georgia.
- Cooperates with the European and US main universities and gives trade programs of numerous European Universities to the students for one semester or a year.
- The University has trade programs inside individual cooperation, Erasmus mundus and Erasmus+.
- The University of Georgia carries out numerous types of International scientific research projects together with the Tempus program funded through the European Union
- It is one of the leading provider of Medical Education in Georgia for Graduates and Undergraduates
- Top notch education centers for the students.
- Safe and attractive surroundings for all.
- No capitation fee & tuition costs are low.
- Infrastructure is modern and pretty advanced.
- No specific entrance examinations for pursuing MBBS admission.
- Safe and non violent ecosystem good for studies.
- Cooperative and certified schools to assist.
- Instruction in English for the worldwide scientific candidates.
- Good and fairly priced lodging facility available.